Intermediate French I -- 3 credit hrs.
This course provides intensive work in all four language skills: speaking, listening, reading and writing. Study includes both review and expansion of grammar and phonetics foundational to oral and written communication, along with substantial experience interacting with French culture and target-language materials.
Instructor: Prof. Ghislaine Rideout, Trinity Western University

French Grammar and Conversation -- 3 credit hrs.
Building on Intermediate French I, this course continues to strengthen grammar comprehension while providing intensive work in all four language skills: speaking, listening, reading and writing. Study also includes basic phonetics. Extensive language use is applied in substantial interactions with French nationals, culture and target-language materials.
Instructor: Dr. Robert Turnbull, Evangel University

French Conversation and Phonetics -- 3 credit hrs.
This course provides intensive practice and instruction in French conversation, listening comprehension, and phonetics, with an additional focus on expanded vocabulary. Study includes continuing work in grammar, discourse, and critical thinking skills, and an orientation to informal and formal use of French. Taught in French by national professors trained in teaching French as a Second Language.
Instructor: Université de Caen

French Civilization and History -- 3 credit hrs.
This course introduces the post-intermediate student to the historical side of French civilization (through WWII), then connects various historical threads to current institutional, political, and social aspects of modern France. The course involves numerous visits to related sites in Normandy and Paris, interacting with the topics studied while in the target culture.
Instructor: Dr. Kelsey Haskett, Trinity Western University

Advanced Conversation Themes and Phonetics -- 3 credit hrs.
This course provides intensive practice and instruction in French conversation, particularly on the formal level and with a special focus on pronunciation and accent. Study includes continuing work in higher-level communication skills engaging abstract thoughts and concepts. Taught in French by national professors trained in teaching French as a Second Language.
Instructor: Université de Caen

Advanced Stylistics and Grammar -- 3 credit hrs.
Intensive work in native expression and refined grammar, enhancing students' ability to communicate fluidly in high-level conversations and in extended written forms.
Instructor: Université de Caen

Which Study-Track is for me?
Each Study-Track is a complete program and can accommodate small differences in language ability among the students - your French professor can help you decide which track is best for you. This table gives a good idea of the college-level French credits a student would have already obtained prior to each Study-Track . . .

Candidates for . . .	would usually already have these credits
Track A	6-8
Track B	8-11
Track C	11-14
Track D	15 and up
Track E	18 and up

Head-Start Option
Need a Head-Start on your Study-Track? Feel like your French is a little "rusty," or that some review would be helpful? Or with your professors permission, you could even earn 9 credits instead of 6!

Check out the "Head-Start Option" sheet in this packet, and be sure to check this choice on your Application Form if you wish to apply.
