

Study-Track A: Departs May 7; Returns June 17

[- Head-Start -] Study-Track B: Departs May 21; Returns July 2

[- Head-Start -] Study-Track C: Departs June 10; Returns July 21

[- Head-Start -] Study-Track D: Departs June 24; Returns August 6

[- Head-Start -] Study-Track E: Departs June 24; Returns August 6

French Grammar and Culture -- 3 credit hrs.

Typically a student's 3rd semester of college-level French, this course provides intensive work in all four language skills: speaking, listening, reading and writing. Study includes both review and expansion of grammar and phonetics foundational to oral and written communication, along with substantial experience interacting with French culture and target-language materials.

French Grammar and Conversation -- 3 credit hrs.

Typically a student's 4th semester of college-level French, this course continues to strengthen grammar comprehension while providing intensive work in all four language skills: speaking, listening, reading and writing. Study also includes basic phonetics. Extensive language use is applied in substantial interactions with French nationals, culture and target-language materials.

French Conversation and Phonetics -- 3 credit hrs.

This course provides intensive practice and instruction in French conversation, listening comprehension, and phonetics, with an additional focus on expanded vocabulary. Study includes continuing work in grammar, discourse, and critical thinking skills, and an orientation to informal and formal use of French. Taught in French by national professors trained in teaching French as a Second Language.

French Civilization and History -- 3 credit hrs.

This course introduces the post-intermediate student to the historical side of French civilization (through WWII), then connects various historical threads to current institutional, political, and social aspects of modern France. The course involves numerous visits to related sites in Normandy and Paris, interacting with the topics studied while in the target culture. Taught in French.

Advanced Conversation Themes and Phonetics -- 3 credit hrs.

This course provides intensive practice and instruction in French conversation, particularly on the formal level and with a special focus on pronunciation and accent. Study includes continuing work in higher-level communication skills engaging abstract thoughts and concepts. Taught in French by national professors trained in teaching French as a Second Language.

French Christian History -- 3 credit hrs.

From legendary stories of the Apostle Paul and St. Denis, through the medieval era of Bishop Aubert and Rollo the Viking, to the French spiritual "forefather" of the Reformation and one of its leaders Jean Calvin, to the post-WWII missionary outreach – the sweeping arc of Christianity has exerted a profound influence on the course of French history. This study will give students a deep understanding and appreciation for the rich spiritual heritage we enjoy through France. Taught in French.

(Chez Vous reserves the option of changing arrival and/or departure dates a couple of days in either direction due to unforeseen or changing circumstances.)

Which Study-Track is for me?

Each Study-Track is a complete program and can accommodate small differences in language ability among the students - your French professor can help you decide which track is best for you. This table gives a good idea of the college-level French credits a student would have already obtained prior to each Study-Track . . .

Candidates for . . .	would usually already have these credits
Track A	6-8
Track B	8-11
Track C	11-14
Track D	15 and up
Track E	18 and up

Head-Start Option

Need a Head-Start on your Study-Track? Feel like your French is a little "rusty," or that some review would be helpful? Or with your professors permission, you could even earn 9 credits instead of 6!

Check out the "Head-Start Option" sheet in this packet, and be sure to check this choice on your Application Form if you wish to apply.

